Overview of the program

Name of the Seminar/conference/workshop: Fundamental of Structural Geology and its Career

Prospects

Venue: Zoom Platform

Date: 04.04.2022

Organized by: Department of Geology, Gargaon College

Nature of Activity: Career Counselling/ National Seminar

Name of Resource Person: Prof. Tapas Kumar Biswal, Dept. of Earth Science, IIT Bombay

Number of Participants: 136

Brief report of the program

The Department of Geology, Gargaon College, organized a national level webinar on the theme 'Fundamental of structural geology and its career prospects' with the objective to understand the 'Development of fold, fault, and ductile shear zone'.The resource person for the webinar was Prof. Tapas Kumar Biswal, Dept. of Earth Science, IIT Bombay.

This webinar was organized on 4thof April, 2022 at 3.30pm to 5.30pm on Zoom. It was attended by around 82 participants along with the departmental staff. During the session, learners were able to understand structural geology at a depth that would help them in their future career. Prof. Biswal had very distinctively covered the entire topic of fold, fault and ductile shear zone and their association with one another.

The session ended with a round of discussion and vote of thanks by Mr. Chirantan Bhagwati, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Geology, Gargaon College.

The talk was organized as a class room interaction program. She discussed about the background of nanotechnology and its influence in the field of geosciences and environmental science. This interaction program was organized in a class room environment. Around 70-75 students had attended this session along with the faculties of the Department. Student had learned a lot and developed a brief idea about nanotechnology. Ms. Paniphukan had explained the entire topic very precisely and had also addressed various queries that was put forward by the students to her. The entire session lasted for two hours.

It was indeed very successful program organized by the Department of Geology, letting the students to explore unexplored field of knowledge. The session was very interactive and informative for the students of the Department.

Rationality of the program

The webinar was organised to celebrate the World geologists' Day and to lay out knowledge in the prospective fields of Geosciences from eminent Academicians in the reputed Indian Institutes of Technology Bombay, India.

About the Resource Person:

Prof. Tapas Kumar Biswal is an eminent Professor in the Department of Earth Science, IIT Bombay. Prof. Biswal has been teaching Structural Geology, Tectonics, Structural Analysis, Precambrian Geology and Climate Geology at IIT Bombay since 1994. Prof. Biswal is also an Adjunct Faculty at the Indian Institute of Technology Bhubaneswar since 2013. Prof. Biswal is well known for his expertise in the field of structural geology and tectonics as well as profound research contributions in this field. Prof. Biswal has published more than hundred research publications, book chapters and conference papers in reputed national and international journals. He has also achieved many awards and recognitions including prestigious National Mineral Award from Ministry of Mines, GOI, New Delhi, in Basic Geosciences, 2008 (Awarded in 2010) & Excellence in Teaching Award in 2010, 2014, & 2016 at IIT Bombay.

Title of the talk: "Development of fold, fault and ductile shear zone" Time: 3:30 PM – 5:30 PM (Platform: Zoom)
