Constitution Day (INDIA)

— PARLIAMENT OF INDIA —

Title of the program:

Constitution Day (India)

Date: 26th November, 2022

Significance of the Program:

Indian National Constitution Day is celebrated on 26th November every year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India by the Constituent Assembly in 1949. The Constitution of India is the supreme law of the land and the longest written constitution in the world. It reflects the aspirations and values of the people of India and enshrines the principles of democracy, secularism, equality, justice and liberty.

About the Program:

The Political Science department of Gargaon College observed National Constitution Day, 2022, with the participation of all faculty members and students. The event was aimed at creating awareness among the students about the significance of the constitution and its making in the context of the long struggle for independence from British colonialism. The faculty members shared their insights on the constitutional values and principles, while the students also expressed their opinions and perspectives on the occasion.
