Participative Learning
(2022-23)

PARTICIPATIVE LEARNING

Participative learning is a student-centric approach to education that emphasizes active participation and engagement from students in the learning process. The College promotes participative modes and methods of learning to make teaching and learning lively and vibrant. Some of the ways in which the students of the college are engaged in participative ways of learning include:

1. Peer learning
2. Learning by Doing
3. Participation in Seminars
4. Extra-curricular activities
5. Sports Activities
6. Preparation of Magazine/Wall Magazine
7. Participation in Cultural Rally
8. NCC / NSS / Volunteering

PEER LEARNING

Peer learning is an education method that helps students solidify their knowledge by teaching each other. One student tutoring another in a supervised environment can result in better learning and retention. The slow learner can grasp when explained by a peer, and the advanced learner's knowledge increases through revision of the topic before imparting ideas to the peer. Such a direct interaction between students promotes active learning as well as participation within themselves.

Following are some of the glimpses of peer learning :

‘Querencia’

Department of Zoology

On April 29, 2023, the Department of Zoology at Gargaon College celebrated a significant milestone with the inauguration of their much-anticipated magazine, "Querencia." The event marked a momentous occasion for the academic community, bringing together students, faculty, and esteemed guests to witness the unveiling of this unique publication. The inauguration ceremony took place in the college premises, adorned with banners and decorations reflecting the theme of "Querencia." The ceremony was graced by distinguished guests, including eminent Zoologists, Professors, students and alumni who have made noteworthy contributions to the field. The unveiling marked the beginning of a new chapter for the Department of Zoology, symbolizing their commitment to scholarly excellence and the dissemination of knowledge. "Querencia" showcases a diverse range of articles, research papers, and creative works related to zoology, poetry, and literature. The inaugural issue's theme centered around the concept of "Querencia," a term that embodies a place where one feels safe, a place of comfort and tranquillity. The magazine aimed to create a sense of belonging for the readers within the vast and fascinating world of zoology. The success of "Querencia" was made possible through the collaborative efforts of students, faculty, and staff members. The editorial team, comprised of dedicated students and faculty advisors, worked tirelessly to curate and present a high-quality publication that reflects the academic rigor and enthusiasm of the Department of Zoology.
