Overview

The department classifies students into two distinct categories, namely, slow learners and advanced learners. The process of classification is as listed below:

Identifying advance learners:

- I. Quick Grasp: Rapid understanding and application of new methods.
- II. Critical Thinking: Ability to analyse information independently.
- III. Curiosity: inquisitive nature, seeking additional challenges.
- IV. Creative expression; demonstrates creativity in problem-solving and expression.
- V. Better marks/Grade: secure better marks and grades in Sessional examinations and end semester examinations.

Identifying Slow learners:

- I. Pacing: Requires more time to grasp and process information.
- II. Repetition: benefits from repeated exposure and reinforcement.
- III. Individualize support: benefits from personalized teaching strategies.
- IV. Concrete examples: understands concepts better with real-world examples.
- V. Monitoring progress: regular progress checks and adjustments are essential.
