ADVANCED LEARNERS

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

SESSION: 2023-24

Overview of the Programme

Name of the Programme: ICT training for advanced learners

Session: 2023-24

Venue: Department of History

Brief report of the Programme

The Department of History, Gargaon College occasionally demonstrates ICT techniques to the advance learners of the department. With the advancement of artificial intelligence, the idea of classroom is being redefined to fit the evolving needs of the learners. These ICT trainings provide advance learners with instant access to a vast amount of information. Digital libraries or online databases allow students to access e-books, journals and multimedia contents that can support their learning.
