Rationality

The Seminar pointed out that the conference gave an opportunity to discuss the life, philosophy, and oeuvre of the greatest Assamese of all time, Mahapurush Srimanta Sankardev. The relevance of Sankardev's religious philosophy is increasing for creating a new society.

Brief report of the program

The glorious higher education institution of Sivasagar District, Gargaon College, organised a national conference on “Sankardev: Creation and Philosophy” to give a fillip to the discourse on Sankardevite philosophy and thoughts. The conference was organized on April 05 as part of the yearlong Golden Jubilee Celebration of Bhogabari Primary Chapter of Srimanta Sankardev Sangha by the Central Publicity Cell of Srimanta Sankardev Sangha, Bhogabari Primary Chapter of Srimanta Sankardev Sangha, Department of Assamese, Gargaon College in collaboration with IQAC, Gargaon College. The programme started with a borgeet sung by Kasturi Lahon, followed by the lighting of lamps by former Office-Bearer of Srimanta Sankardev Sangha Sri Rajani Kanta Dutta, who expressed the hope that the tradition of Sankardevite thoughts would be carried forward.

The welcome address of the conference was given by the eminent poet, speaker, academic, and Principal of Gargaon College, Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta. Dr. Mahanta, in his deliberation, pointed out that the conference gave an opportunity to discuss the life, philosophy, and oeuvre of the greatest Assamese of all time, Mahapurush Srimanta Sankardev. He also opined that the relevance of Sankardev's religious philosophy is increasing for creating a new society. The inaugural speech of the conference was delivered by the Chairperson of Bhogabari Primary Chapter of Srimanta Sankardev Sangha, Jatin Lahon, who stated the religion acquired a proper meaning through the contributions and philosophy of Srimanta Sankardev. Bhabendranath Deka, Office-bearer of Srimanta Sankardev Sangha, presented the conference's keynote address. In his deliberation, Dr. Deka pointed out that Mahapurush Srimanta Sankardev created a culturally developed and spiritually sound society through his philosophy. He also stated the necessity of such conferences to learn about Sankardev and his thoughts. Deka said that Sankardev's religion was based on certain eternal principles.

The inaugural session co-ordinated by Devajnai Bokolial and Jatin Lahon was also graced by Chief Secretary of Srimanta Sankardev Sangha, Kushal Thakuria, Chairperson of the Central Publicity Cell of Srimanta Sankardev Sangha, Tonkeshwar Buragohain and Secretary Bodon Bora, Vice Principal of Gargaon College, Dr. Rina Handique, Head of the Department of Assamese, Pranab Dowerah and other faculty members of the college, students, office-bearers and members of Bhogabari Primary Chapter of Srimanta Sankardev Sangha.

Four selected research papers were read out by dignitaries like Mrinal Kumar Boruah, Assistant Professor of Performing Arts, Dibrugarh University, Dr. Dipali Neog, Principal-In-Charge of Bir Lachit College, Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta, Principal of Gargaon College and Dr. Bidyananda Borkakoty Head of the Department of Education, Gargaon College. The plenary session was chaired by former Head of the Department of Assamese, Gargaon College, Dr. Arundhati Mahanta.

Objective of the Program: The objective was to provide participants especially the students with the knowledge of IKS with special emphasis to North-East India

Brief report of the program

An Invited talk was organized by the Department of Botany and Zoology, Gargaon College on 27th March 2024. The program was inaugurated by the Principal, Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta. In his speech, he mentioned the inclusion of IKS in the educational system and its various importance. He also spoke about the Indian astrology and Vedic science. The invited speaker, Dr. Raktim Patar, Associate Professor, Centre for Historical Studies, School of Social Sciences, JNU emphasized Indian traditional food and yoga. He highlighted that these hold a great opportunity especially for botany and zoology students. He also gave many examples for a better understanding. The program was attended by around 86 participants.

Rationality

The program helped to provide participants especially the students with the knowledge of IKS with special emphasis to North-East India.

Talk on Indian Knowledge System held

OUR CORRESPONDENT

SIVASAGAR, March 30:

Gargaon College organized an invited talk on Indian Knowledge System under the aegis of the Department of Botany and Department of Zoology recently. The main objective of the programme was to provide insights about Indian Knowledge System to students and to generate awareness regarding its importance.

The programme was inaugurated by renowned academician and Principal of Gargaon College, Dr Sabyasachi Mahanta. In his speech, Dr Mahanta spoke about Indian Astrology and Vedic Science. He opined that Indian astrology is one of the oldest systems of knowledge in the entire world. He further spoke about the necessity of including IKS as a critical element into curriculum at all levels of education. Resource person Dr Raktim Patar, Associate Professor, Centre for Historical Studies, School of Social Sciences, JNU highlighted the importance of yoga, meditation and ayurveda in our daily life. He explained about traditional food practices of different tribes with special emphasis on North-East India.

The programme was moderated by Sandeepa Agarwalla, Assistant Professor, Department of Botany and attended by the faculty members and students of different Departments.

Overview of the program

Name of the Program: Workshop on Indian Knowledge System

Type of Program: Workshop

Related to: IKS

Date: 27th March, 2024

Organized by: Department of Mathematics, Gargaon College

Resource person: Mr. Partha Pratim Gogoi

Related to: Indian Knowledge System

Number of Participants: 18

Objective of the Program: To introduce the students to the principles and techniques of Vedic Mathematics. Teach the mental calculation methods for arithmetic operations. Enhance their speed, accuracy and confidence in mathematical calculations and encourage participants to engage in interactive sessions and practice exercises to reinforce learning.

Brief report of the program

The Department of Mathematics of Gargaon College organized a workshop on Indian Knowledge System on 27th March, 2024. The programme coordinated and the welcome speech was given by Dr. Kabita Phukon, Head of the department of Mathematics. The event comprised an interactive session by Mr. Partha Pratim Gogoi, a faculty of department of Mathematics, Gargaon College on the topic “Easy Tricks with VEDIC MATHEMATICS”. Mr. Gogoi, in the workshop, taught different methods of Vedic Maths and easy and short ways to calculate large mathematical problems. Students solved many problems on the workshop using those methods too. Along with the students other faculty members were present too including Ms. Sujata Goala, Assistant Professor of the Department and Mr. Harekrishna Mili, Assistant Professor of the Department.

Number of Participants: 34

Objective of the Program: To focus on traditional medicinal practices rooted in Indian culture and the significance of Ayurveda

Brief report of the program

The Department of Economics, NSS Unit, and Eco Club of Gargaon College collaboratively organized an extension activity in Borkala Nahar Ali Gaon village on 21st March. This initiative aimed to raise awareness about the rich heritage of Indian Ayurveda and the importance of preserving medicinal plants through a plantation drive. Themed "Green Village," the event commenced with an interactive session with villagers. Dr. Rimjim Borah, Head of the Department of Economics, Programme Officer of the NSS Unit, and Coordinator of the Eco Club, along with Dr. Surajit Saikia, Assistant Professor and Coordinator of IQAC, delivered valuable insights into traditional medicinal practices rooted in Indian culture and the significance of Ayurveda. Following the session, a plantation drive was organized, featuring the planting of thirty varieties of medicinal plants native to Indian Ayurveda. These plants were distributed and planted across thirty households within the village. This selection of medicinal plants aimed to enrich the local ecosystem, promote the health and well-being of the village community, and encourage sustainable practices.

A total of thirty students, volunteers, and villagers actively participated in this programme, highlighting their enthusiastic involvement and collective commitment to environmental conservation and preserving indigenous knowledge systems of India. Ansu Kumari and Swastika Borkotoky, Assistant Professors of the Department of Economics, also actively participated in the plantation drive. Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta, Principal of Gargaon College, commended the collaborative efforts of the Department of Economics, NSS Unit, and Eco Club for organizing this impactful initiative. The event successfully fostered a sense of community participation and responsibility towards safeguarding our natural heritage and preserving the spirit of the Indian knowledge system by engaging students, NSS volunteers, and villagers alike. This extension activity served as a successful example of collaborative effort in promoting environmental sustainability and preserving indigenous knowledge. The active participation of students, volunteers, and villagers underscored their collective commitment to these goals.

Related to: Indian Knowledge System

Number of Participants: 27

Objective of the Program: The objective was to provide participants especially the students with the knowledge

Rationality

The program helped to provide participants especially the students with the knowledge on impact of colonialism on the Indian knowledge system.

Brief report of the program

In a captivating and intellectually stimulating workshop organized by the Department of Commerce at Gargaon College, faculty members and students gathered to delve into the profound intricacies of the Indian Knowledge System. The event featured distinguished guest speaker Dr. Raktim Patar, Associate Professor in the Department of History, who shared insightful perspectives on various facets of the Indian knowledge landscape.

Dr. Patar, in his engaging discourse, shed light on the impact of colonialism on the Indian knowledge system. He underscored the pervasive weakness towards Western culture and emphasized the need for a comprehensive understanding of one's roots before embarking on the learning journey. Dr. Patar also delved into the role of the National Education Policy (NEP) in shaping the contours of the Indian knowledge system, emphasizing its pivotal role in the contemporary educational landscape.

Continue

The survival of the Indian knowledge system took center stage in the discussions, as Dr. Pator eloquently articulated the importance of preserving and nurturing our rich intellectual heritage. Drawing attention to the historical background, he highlighted the significance of historical context in comprehending the evolution of knowledge in India.

The workshop also saw the gracious presence of Dr. Pobon Gogoi, Associate Professor in the Department of Political Science, who added depth to the academic dialogue with his valuable insights. Mr. Anil Tanti, Head of the Department of Commerce, along with esteemed faculty members, Dr. Mintu Gogoi, Mr. Gautom Hazarika, and Dr. Nazreen Parveen Ali, contributed to the multifaceted discussions, enriching the overall experience for the participants.

A noteworthy aspect of the workshop was the active participation of students, demonstrating their keen interest and eagerness to engage in meaningful conversations about the Indian knowledge system.

The workshop succeeded in creating an intellectually charged atmosphere, fostering a sense of academic curiosity and enlightenment among the attendees. Gargaon College continues to be a hub for thoughtful discourse, ensuring that its students and faculty remain at the forefront of academic exploration.
