Rationality of the Programme

Understanding and preservation of local performing arts become crucial in the era of globalization. This webinar was organized to give better understanding of the local performing arts and preservation of the same.

Brief Description of the Programme

Dr. Pranjit Borah, an Associate Professor in the Department of Assamese at Dibrugarh University, recently delivered a compelling speech on the local performing arts of the state. In his address, Dr. Borah delved into the unique challenges facing these traditional art forms, particularly in the context of globalization. He also discussed potential strategies for preserving and promoting these cultural treasures in today's rapidly changing world.

The program attracted around 300 students, who actively engaged with Dr. Borah during the interactive session. The event provided a valuable platform for students to gain deeper insights into the local performing arts and explore ways to contribute to their preservation. Dr. Borah's expertise and passion for the subject inspired many attendees, making the session both informative and thought-provoking.
