Rationality of the Programme

The Ahoms assimilated the entire Brahmaputra Valley by subjugating the local inhibiting tribes and formed into a state. Various factors contributed to the development of Ahom. Every tribe and caste were rich in different activities. To make a historical understanding of the topic, this webinar was organized.

Brief Description of the Programme

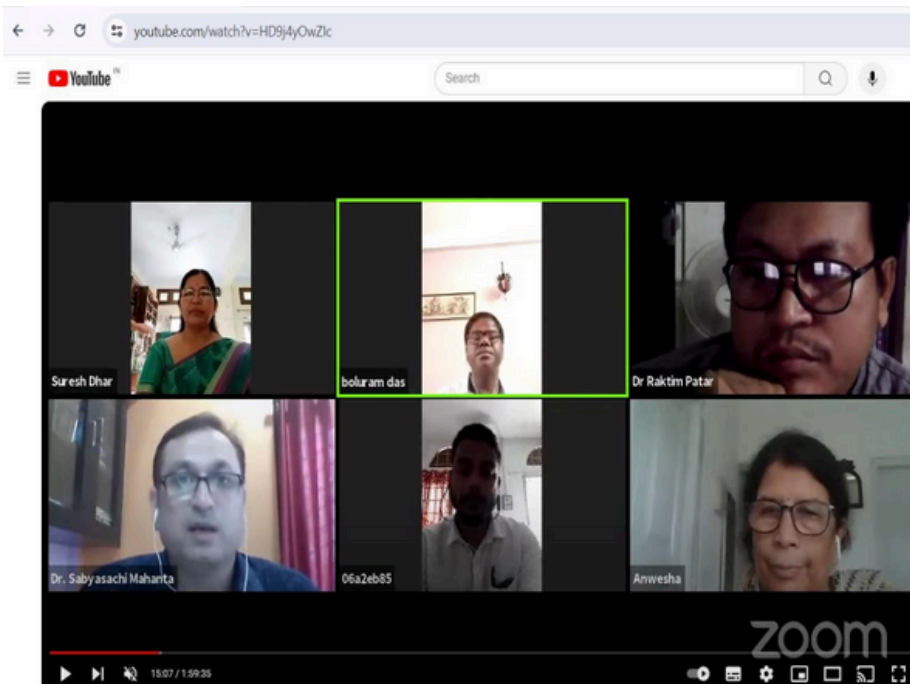

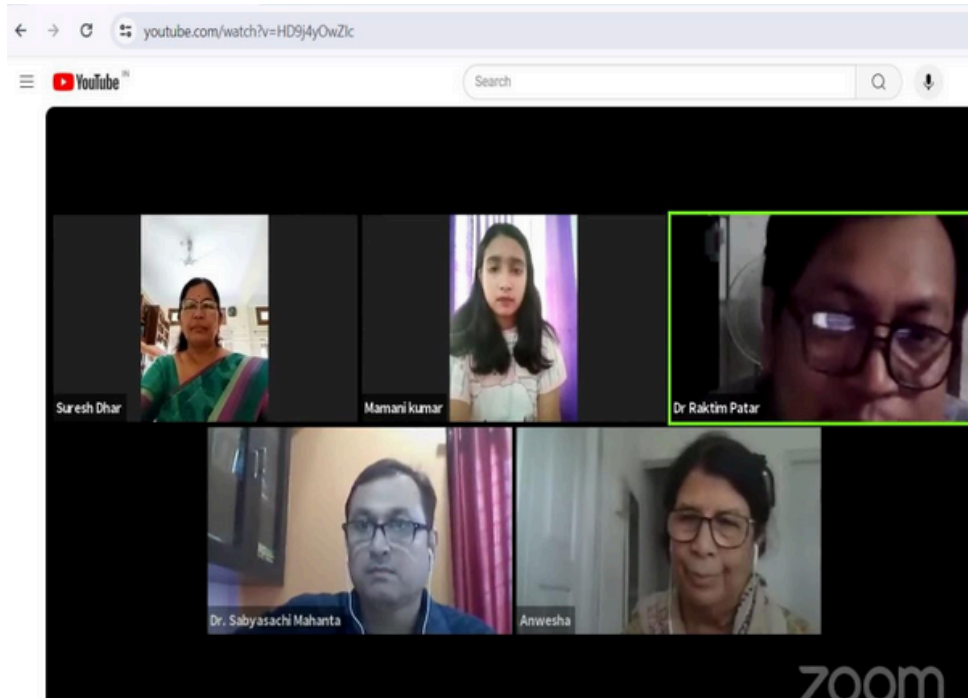

The National Webinar on Ahom State and Social Development: Understanding History and Society in the Pre-colonial Period was coordinated by Dr. Raktim Pator, Assistant Professor, of History Department. Dr. Manjumoni Gogoi, Head of the Department of History delivered the Welcome address. She thanked the Resource person and the participants for their participation in the webinar. Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta, Principal, Gargaon College inaugurated the National Seminar. Dr. Mahanta thanked the Resource person for accepting the invitation to deliver speech on the topic. He highlighted in his speech the social development after the state formation.

The Speaker, Dr. Jahnabi Nath mentioned about the factors, which she considered significant in the formation of the State. She spoke about the relation between history and Geography. She further pointed that how geography determine the history of a particular society. The location of the region (Assam) is crucial to the formation of the state. She talked about the social and cultural life of the people which contributes largely to the formation of the Ahom state. The webinar came to a closer with the vote of thanks offered by Dr. Raktim Pator, Assistant Professor of the Department of History, Gargaon College.
