Brief report of the program

A Gyanyatra provided an ideal setting for students to connect with their peers and faculty members and have a broader understanding of the real life scenarios of hands on teaching activity. The networking sessions facilitated the exchange of ideas, fostering a collaborative environment for future projects and initiatives.

The success of Gyanyatra has inspired the Department of Commerce at Gargaon College to consider making it an annual tradition. The organizers expressed their commitment to building on this foundation, expanding the event in the coming years, and incorporating valuable feedback to make each edition even more impactful.

In conclusion, Gyanyatra proved to be a resounding success, showcasing the intellectual prowess and creative spirit of the students in the Department of Commerce at Gargaon College. The event not only celebrated academic achievements but also laid the groundwork for a more connected and collaborative academic community.
