

Name of the Programme: B.A. HISTORY (FYUGP)

Programme Outcomes (PO)

After completing the Four Year Undergraduate Programme in HISTORY, Students are expected to achieve the following Programme Outcomes:

PO1: Disciplinary Knowledge: The foundational knowledge of History, theoretical and philosophical aspects of the discipline

PO2: Communication Skills: The program imparts a holistic development in the communication aspect. Through it the student will be able to express their thoughts and ideas meaningfully and effectively both in oral and writing. It will enhance their overall communication skill.

PO3: Ethical Awareness and Reasoning: The research project and methodology, dissertation courses in the program will enhance the graduate's ability to identify the key ethical issues like intellectual property rights, plagiarism, data falsification, social media, environmental issues, artificial intelligence, privacy rights and enhance the reasoning capacity of the graduates.

PO4: Information Technology and Digital Literacy: Aware knowledge of ICT, enhance the ability to access various information sources and evaluate them critically and effectively.

PO5: Reflective and Critical thinking: The program will enhance the level of analytical and critical thinking in investigating any given event or research-related work. It will develop the capacity to evaluate evidence, arguments, policies, and theories related to the discipline.

PO6: Research-Related Skill: The programme includes courses on research methodology and projects which will enhance the aptitude and analytical aspects of the graduates to a level that helps to identify the problems, research gaps, methodology, procuring data, formulate hypothesis, analyze data, interpret and draw conclusive findings followed by the preparation of reports.

Programme Specific Outcomes (PSO)

The programme-specific outcomes of the Undergraduate Programme in HISTORY are listed below. After completing the program the students will be able to-

PSO1: A graduate in History will acquire a profound knowledge of Indian civilization, culture, socio-economic, politics, environment, science, and technology of India's past. A graduate will acquire broad information on the historical geography of the Indian sub-continent and the contemporary world.

PSO2: The program imbibes broad skills in the discipline of history including manuscript reading, decipher script, epigraphy and numismatic, developing archiving skills, and commentary on declassified government/non-government documents, reports, and dispatch.

PSO3: A graduate of history will develop competency in various academic writings like essays, research projects, and newspaper editorials, and participate in debates on several burning issues having historical antecedents and implications.

PSO4: The program enriches competency level by introducing a canvas of courses that enrich the capacity for human resource development in various government and non-government sectors. The program ensures graduates' placement in competitive examinations conducted by state and union commissions every year for different categories of government jobs.

PSO5: The program structured courses in a way that gives avenues for further research and teaching in various academic and research institutions across disciplines.

Course Outcomes (CO)B.A. 1st Semester*Course Title : History of India-I (Prehistory to c.300 BCE)*Course Code : HISC1*Nature of Course : Major*Total Credits : 4

On completion of this Course, students will be able to –

CO1: Have an understanding on prehistory and sources of Indian prehistory.

CO2: Acquaint with the prehistoric period and prehistoric cultures, distribution of sites, tools and technologies, economic, and socio-cultural developments of the period concerned.

CO3: Acquaint with The Indus valley civilization.

CO4: Acquaint with the Vedic period and the state formation in Early India.

Course Title : History of Ancient IndiaCourse Code: MINHIS1*Nature of Course: Minor*Total Credits: 4

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Understand the history of ancient India.

CO2: Understand the history of early medieval India.

CO3: Gain knowledge on the sources of ancient India as well as the political history.

CO4: Understand political history and dynastic chronology of the sub-continent up to 1200 C.E.

Course Title : Introduction to Culture and Heritage of Ancient India

Course Code: GECHIS1

Nature of Course: GEC

Total Credits: 4

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Have an understanding on culture and heritage of ancient India.

CO2: Understand the vedic philosophy and principles of Buddhism.

CO3: Understand the Nagara, Dravida and Amravati style of art and architecture.

CO4: Acquaint with the literature, philosophy, art, architecture and sculptural developments in India during the period concerned.

B.A. 2nd SemesterCourse Title : Social Formations and Cultural Patterns of Ancient and Medieval World

Course Code: HISC2

Nature of Course: Major Core

Total Credits: 4

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Understand the historical developments of various civilizations of ancient and medieval world.

CO2: Have a comprehensive view about various political, economic and cultural developments of different human societies.

CO3: Learn the changes and crisis faced by early and medieval societies.

CO4: Understand the society polity and religion of the Meso-American Civilizations like Mayan Aztec and Incas.

Course Title : History of Medieval India

Course Code: MINHIS2

Nature of Course: Minor

Total Credits: 4

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Have an understanding of the history of medieval India.

CO2: Gain knowledge on the sources of medieval India as well as the political history and dynastic chronology of the sub-continent from 1200 C.E.

CO3: Understand the socio-religious developments of medieval period.

CO4: Understand about Sufism and art and architecture of Indo-Islamic style.

Course Title : Introduction to Cultural Heritage of Assam

Course Code: GECHIS2

Nature of Course: OPEN ELECTIVE COURSE

Total Credits: 4

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Understand the rich cultural heritage of Ancient and Medieval Assam.

CO2: Understand the context and various stylistic traditions of archaeological and architectural remains.

CO3: Have an understanding of neo-Vaishnavite traditions of Assam.

CO4: Understand the monuments of Kacharies, Art and Architecture of Ahoms and Manuscript traditions of Medieval Assam.

B.A. 3rd SemesterCourse Title : History of India II (c.300 BCE-500 CE)

Course Code: HISC3

Nature of Course: Major Core

Total Credits: 4

*At the end of this course, students will be able to:CO1: Understand the changing political condition of Mauryan dynasty.CO2: Understand the socio political development post Mauryan period.CO3: Have a very good understanding about the rich part of Indian history specifically from the Mauryan to the Gupta period.CO4: Acquaint with the changing political formations, trade, urbanism, coinage, religious and socio-cultural developments of the period concerned.Course Title : History of India –III (post-Gupta to 1206 CE)

Course Code: HISC4

Nature of Course: Major Core

Total Credits: 4

*At the end of this course, students will be able to:CO1: Understand the sources of post Gupta Period.CO2: Understand the political structure of pallava, Chola and Chalukya dynasties.CO3: Understand the political as well as religious structure of the post-Gupta period of Indian history.CO4: Acquaint with the changing political structures, agrarian structures, social change, trade, urbanism, religious and cultural developments during the period concerned.

Course Title : History of Modern India (From 1757- 1947 A.D.)

Course Code: MINHIS3

Nature of Course: Minor

Total Credits: 4

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Understand the decline of Mughal Empire to consolidation of East India company.

CO2: Understand the British relation with native kingdoms upto revolt of 1857.

CO3: Understand the socioeconomic impact of the policies introduced by the British.

CO4: Understand the process of the growth of nationalist movement, its different phases leading to Independence and partition.

Course Title : Introduction to Indian Freedom Struggle (1857-1947)

Course Code: GECHIS3

Nature of Course: OPEN ELECTIVE COURSE

Total Credits: 4

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Understand nature of revolt of 1857 to partition of Bengal.

CO2: Acquaint with the Gandhian era and the Rise of Socialist, Depressed class Movements and Ambedkar, Peasant and Workers struggle.

CO3: Understand the rise of muslim league to second world war.

CO4: Understand the different phases and ideologies of the Indian freedom movement and to understand the causes and consequences of partition of India.
