

গড়গাঁও মহাবিদ্যালয়
GARGAON COLLEGE

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 8TH MARCH, 2022

Brief Description of the Programme

International Women's Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm at the historic Gargaon College of Sivasagar on March 8 by the Women's Cells of IQAC and the Teacher's Unit of the institution. Massive on-campus Cleanliness and plantation drive were taken up by the faculty members and the students to commemorate this auspicious day. In tune with the theme of this year's Women's Day, a webinar on 'Women Making a Difference' was also organised by the Women's Cells of IQAC and the Teacher's Unit of the institution in collaboration with the Women's Society of Sukapha Nagar of Nazira and Lonkak Milanjyoti Women's Society. In his welcome note, Dr Sabyasachi Mahanta, the Principal of Gargaon College, extolled the role of women play in our society. He also stressed that we must strive towards establishing a gender-just society. Dr Phirmi Bodo, Assistant Professor, Centre for Study of Social System, Jawaharlal Nehru University, as the resource person of the Webinar problematized the existing stereotypical narratives that tend to portray Hinduism as more exploitative towards women. Dr Bodo argued that it is not religion per se that is responsible for discrimination against women but the specific social systems.

Newspaper Clip of the Programme

vishesh bhargavanshi, terence B' round 1 dal Federation of in-International Women's Day celebrated at Gargaon College

Khairuddin Ahmed, Sibsagar, Mar 10: International Women's Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm at the historic Gargaon College of Sivasagar on March 08 by the Women's Cells of IQAC and the Teachers' Unit of the institution. Massive on-campus cleanliness and plantation drive were taken up by faculty members and the students to commemorate this auspicious day. In tune with the theme of this year's Women's Day, a webinar on "Women making a difference" was also organised by the Women's Cells of the IQAC and the Teachers Unit, Gargaon College in collaboration with the Women's Society of Sukapha Nagar of Nazira and Lonkak Milanjyoti Women's Society. In his welcome note, Dr Sabyasachi Mahanta, the Principal of Gargaon College, extolled the role women play in our society. He opined that we must strive towards establishing a gender-just society. He also stressed that we must change our mindset apart from removing gender inequality and patriarchal vestiges by all means. Dr Phirmi Bodo, Assistant Professor, Center for Study of Social Systems, Jawaharlal Nehru University, as the resource person of the webinar problematized the existing stereotypical narratives that tend to portray Hinduism as more exploitative towards women. Dr Bodo argued that it is not religion per se that is responsible for discrimination against women but the specific social systems. She urged the girl students to introspect deeply and realise their true self and potentialities rather than imitating men. Dr Pobon Kumar Gogoi, Dr Rhimjim Bora and Dr Raktim Patar of the Department of Political Science, Economics and History respectively also expressed their views in tune with the central theme of the webinar. Around 300 participants from different educational institutions and social groups attended the webinar. The webinar anchored by Devojeni Bokolia, Assistant Professor of Assamese, came to an end with a vote of thanks offered by Shyamolima Saikia, Assistant Professor of English.

ine v
swelle
Ligers'
dersiz
Sowki
Dinesh
ingly h
to kee
from tl
Indi
captai Bhriugu
likely victory

Safiqu
Nagaoi
BJP ha
achiev
success nicipal
in Nag nounce
four m
electio
trict, th
aged t
seats.

Photographs of the Programme

YOUTUBE