

Name of the Programme: B.A. Sociology (FYUGP)

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES

An undergraduate student of Sociology should be able to:

PO 1. Demonstrate familiarity with the major concepts, theoretical perspectives and latest trends in the field of Sociology.

PO 2. Use a scientific approach to address issues related to problems of teaching, learning and doing research in Sociology.

PO 3. Apply multidisciplinary approaches to meet various issues and challenges in the field of Sociology.

PO 4. Apply knowledge, skills and theories of Sociology to solve societal problems both in familiar and non-familiar contexts and apply sociological learning to real-life situations.

PO 6. Demonstrate teaching competencies and skills required for keeping oneself professionally engaged.

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOME

By the end of the BA (Sociology) programme students should be able to:

PSO1: Sociological Theory

- Understand the Sociological theories including feminist theories
- Analyse the sociological theories, their relevance

PSO2: Research Methods

- Apply Applications of qualitative and quantitative methods in research
- Understand Foundations of research analysis

PSO3: Sociology of India

- Analyze the issues of Indian society
- Understand Indian society through different sociologist
- Critical analysis of India from different socio-political forces

COURSE OUTCOMES (COS)

Paper code: SOCC1 (MAJOR)

Paper title: Introduction to Sociology I

After the end of this course, students will be able to

- CO1 Explore the subject matter of Sociology.
- CO2 Understand about history and fundamental concepts of Sociology.
- CO3 Understand the relationship of Sociology and other Social sciences.
- CO4 Understand the basic concepts of Sociology.
- CO5 Explore the sociological way of thinking.

Paper code: SOCC2 (Major)

Paper title: Introduction to Sociology II

After the end of this course, students will be able to

- CO1 Identify different sociological perspectives
- CO2 Learn the sociological thoughts and relevance
- CO3 Understand the theories of Feminism
- CO4 Understand the plurality of Sociological perspectives
- CO5 Understand critical theorists to explain human relationships in society and with different social institutions

Paper code: SOCC3 (Major)

Paper title: Sociology of India I

After the end of this course, students will be able to

- CO1 Understand how sociological knowledge is constructive in Indian social contexts.
- CO2 Learn differentiation between different social institution
- CO3 Learn how sociological imagination is related to different institutions of Indian society
- CO4 understand pluralism Indian Society
- CO5 How Indian social institutions are the backbone of Indian social life

Paper code: MINSOC1 (Minor)

Paper title: Sociological Perspectives

After the end of this course, students will be able to

- CO1 Understand major classical theories of sociology.
- CO2 Understand materialist conception of History.
- CO3 understand the relationship between religion and economy.
- CO4 Understand the importance of interaction in explaining human behaviour.
- CO5 Understand critical theories to explain the underlying problems of society.

Paper code: MINSOC2 (Minor)

Paper title: Sociology of India

After the end of this course, students will be able to

- CO1 Understand how sociological knowledge is constructive in Indian social contexts.
- CO2 Understand the process of social formation of identities and changes in Indian society
- CO3 Learn how sociological imagination is related to different institutions of Indian society
- CO4 Understand Pluralism Indian Society
- CO5 Understand the challenges and contradictions faced by Indian Society in Recent times.

Paper code: MINSOC3 (Minor)

Paper title: Methods of Sociological Enquiry

After the end of this course, students will be able to

- CO1 Identify the complexity and philosophical underpinning of research
- CO2 Understand the methodologist of sociological research methods
- CO3 Understand different methodological perspectives to do sociological methods
- CO4 Understand different modes of social inquiry
- CO5 Understand the dynamics of qualitative and quantitative research methods

Paper code: GECSOC1 (Generic)

Paper title: Introduction to Sociology

Course Outcomes: Students will be able to

- CO1 Understand the process behind the development of sociology in west
- CO2 Understand about history and fundamental concepts of Sociology

- CO3 Understand the relationship of Sociology and other Social sciences
- CO4 Understand the Sociological concepts
- CO5 Understand the nature and scope of sociology

Paper code GECSOC2 (Generic)

Paper title Indian Society: Images and Realities

After the end of this course, students will be able to

- CO1 Understand how sociological knowledge is constructive in Indian social contexts.
- CO2 Understand India as a nation and as a civilization
- CO3 Learn different social institutions of Indian society and process of functioning of the institutions
- CO4 Understand critically the concepts of civilization, colony and nation in Indian context
- CO5 Understand the challenges and contradictions faced by Indian Society in Recent times.

Paper code GECSOC3 (Generic)

Paper title Marriage, Family and Kinship

After the end of this course, students will be able to

- CO1 Understand the sociological meaning of family and kinship
- CO2 Understand contemporary concerns in the field of marriage, family and kinship
- CO3 Learn different social institutions of Indian society and the process of functioning of the institutions
- CO4 Understand contemporary debates surrounding marriage, family and kinship in India
- CO5 Understand the theoretical issues and major practices surrounding contemporary family, marriage and kinship systems in India

Paper code SEC137

Paper title Fundamentals of Rural Development

After the end of this course, students will be able to

- CO1 Understand knowledge about rural development
- CO2 Understand socioeconomic factors affecting the transformation of rural society
- CO3 Learn different community facilities and services
- CO4 learns different rural development strategies, policies, plan and programmes
- CO5 Understand issues of equity and inclusive development

Paper code SEC234

Paper title Agriculture and Rural Marketing

After the end of this course, students will be able to

- CO1 Understand the nature and scope of rural marketing
- CO2 Learn different consumer behaviour in rural marketing
- CO3 Understand the marketing of agricultural inputs and outputs
- CO4 learns different distribution systems including grading processing and packaging
- CO5 Understand different agriculture and rural marketing-related acts, policies and programme.
