

6.2.2. IMPLEMENTATIONS OF E-GOVERNANCE

POLICY DOCUMENT AND INSTITUTIONAL EXPENDITURE STATEMENTS FOR THE HEADS OF E-GOVERNANCE IMPLEMENTATION

POLICY DOCUMENT

The purpose of implementing E-governance is to improve and enhance good governance. E-governance helps in improving transparency, accountability, providing speedy information, dissemination, improving administrative efficiency and many other services. E-Governance service covers areas including computerization and management of processes such as admission, student information, faculty information, attendance, examination, etc.

OBJECTIVES:

- ·To empower faculties, students, and other stakeholders to participate in E-governance process.
- ·To ensure and increase transparency and accountability in administration, governing and admission process.
- ·To enhance good governance by increasing the efficiency of faculties and to ensure quick internal process of services and data
- ·To promote ecofriendly mechanisms in the process of E-governance.

ROLE OF STAKEHOLDERS:

The Principal: The Principal forms the nucleus of the college administration, who is vested with powers to supervise the day-to-day functioning of the college administration and academic matters. He manages the various academic and non-academic activities. The status of Principal can monitor the admission, internal mark, attendance, teacher's duty entries, class assigned, employee's information and student's performance.

Faculties: The faculty members will have access to student attendance and internal marks records. They can store their employment details and update whenever required in the campus management system.

Students: Students are internal and primary stakeholders in education, as they are directly impacted by the educational system the most. Each student has a unique username and password through which the student can log in to the campus management system. Through the college website, they can get information regarding examination schedules, academic timetables, and other relevant academic matters. Students can seek grievance redressal through the website.

Examination Cell: To evaluate the students' performance by the conduction of examinations. Bringing more transparency in the examination and evaluation system. The examination cell can administer internal marks of students through the campus management system. An examination committee's role as a stakeholder in education is to ensure that examinations are conducted fairly, on time, and to the highest standard.

Administrative Staff: Administrative staff support the infrastructure and logistical aspects of the educational institution. Administrative staff will have access to students' information. They can sort out students with attendance shortage through the campus management system.

Parents: Parents play a key role as stakeholders in education, as parents are responsible for raising their children. Parents have a vested interest and are impacted by the education their children receive. They want their children to receive a good education to prepare them for life after leaving home.

Alumni: Alumni can contribute a strong stakeholders and can be a strong support to the institution. They can be valuable sources of feedback, referrals, advocacy, student support, referrals and support for E-governance.

Stakeholders: All stakeholders can support the institution by making donations through the website.
