About the College:

Gargaon College envisages being the premier institute to impact quality education to its students so as to match the emerging challenges of the new millennium. It is situated near Simaluguri Railway station, Gargaon of Sivasagar District of Assam encompassing by TGI, ST, SC, OBC, General and economically weaker section people. Dr. Harendra Nath Phukan was the founder principal of the college. The college came under the deficit- grants – in – aid system of government of Assam in the year 1966 and had also been included under section 12 (B) and 2 (F) of UGC act 1956 under the affiliation of Dibrugarh university. Subsequently, the college was provincialised in 1966 under the leadership of Tanu Konger, the first permanent principal of the institution.

About the Department:

The department of geography is one of the prominent and promising departments of the institution dedicated to understanding our planet and its diverse environment. It was established in the year 1985 and the subject was introduced as a major in the year 2000. With the establishment of the geographical forum in 2003 the forum has consistently organised various academic activities such as Annual Seminars, outreach programmes, add on courses like 6 months diploma course on GIS & remote sensing. The department is equipped with a GIS lab which caters to understanding the current trend of geography and its nature. The department has consistently provided with the best graduates of the college in the previous years. The department is proud to boast a diverse and accomplished faculty dedicated to inspiring the next generation.
